

tank.tv DVD
call for moving images /
submit now

Call for submissions
tank.tv DVD

To: Artists based in the UK
 For: Moving images of max 3 minutes long and made after 2000.

tank.tv's new project is the release of a unique DVD, featuring an exceptional selection of 25 short moving images from UK-based artists. Each work should be no longer than three minutes and must have been made in the last six years (created after December 31, 1999). Entry is open to all artists living/working in the UK.

The final selection for the disc will be made by an appointed panel of curators and arts executives including: Hans-Ulrich Obrist / Ben Cook & Mike Sperlinger (The Lux) / Stuart Comer (Tate Modern) / Michelle Cotton (Salon S1 Sheffield) / Rose Cupit (Film London) / Christine Van Assche (Centre Pompidou New Media) / Kathrin Becker (NBK Berlin)

The DVD will be widely distributed for sale by Thames & Hudson, in the UK and abroad. The short-listed artists will receive £250 each and have their work promoted internationally. A quarter of the produced DVDs will be given out to educational institutions, public libraries and local cultural centres, reaching more people with the best in moving images from the UK.

Submission forms can be downloaded from: <http://www.tank.tv/dvd.asp>

Deadline for submissions: 31st of July 2006

Please complete the form, and send it together with your work to:

tank.tv
 49-50 Great Marlborough Street
 London W1F 7JR

tank.tv is an inspirational showcase of contemporary moving images / dedicated to exhibiting and promoting moving images in a free and accessible way, www.tank.tv acts as a platform for the new, innovative work in film and video.

